New Auction Highs Established

RECORD PRICE — Sam Gabriel of Sam's Tool Rental, Blackwater Road and Route 23 in Ross County, purchased the grand champion lamb at the Pickaway County Fair Friday. He paid a record high of $5.50 per pound for Mark Zwyer's 114-pound wether. The lamb was later resold and the proceeds donated to the Laurelville Church of God.

CHAMPION HOG — Becky Peters sells her Grand Champion Market Hog to Carl Patzer and his son Bill, of the Lockbourne Farmer's Exchange for a record $4.15 a pound.

Pickaway County Junior Fair Livestock auction records were shattered again Friday. The grand champion market hog was purchased by Lockbourne Farmers Exchange from Becky Peters for $4.15 a pound and the grand champion market lamb from Mark Zwyer by Sam's Trailer and Tool Rental for $5.50 per pound.

The previous record for both animals was set a year ago when the champion hog sold for $4 per pound and the champion lamb for $5.35 per pound.

Sam Gabriel, proprietor of Sam's Trailer and Tool Rental, had the grand champion resold at the end of the auction with the proceeds of the second sale, $1 per pound, donated to the Laurelville Church of God.

Purchasing both reserve champion animals was Jim Kuster of Jim's Super Duper.

The total price paid by Lockbourne Farmers Exchange for the champion market hog was $825.25. Reserve champion hog was purchased at $2 per pound by Jim's Super Duper for a total of $540.

The total price paid for the champion lamb was $627 while the reserve champion price was $2.50 per pound and $272.50 total.

The Pickaway County Board of Health members purchased a lamb during the sale for $1.15 per pound and had it resold with the proceeds going to the Pickaway County Sight Savers Fund. The second time around it was purchased by Leist Mobile Feed at $1.20 per pound.

There were 256 hogs in the sale and total sales were $35,373.67, an average price of $108.57 per pound for the hogs sold individually. The average price of group hogs was $43.99.

There were 110 lambs in the sale and total sales were $7,959.38. The average price of single lambs was $124.37 per hundred and the average price of group lambs per hundred was $37.23.

The three sales returned a total of $115,073.42 to the 4-H club member owners of Pickaway County.

Tax Bill Conference Slated

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee holds the fate of a far-reaching bill that extends tax cuts for individuals and provides a variety of tax breaks for some of the nation's largest businesses.

The bill was passed 49 to 22 by the Senate on Friday night, nearly eight months after the House approved its own sharply different measure.

Sometime the week of Aug. 23, leaders of the Senate Finance Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee will start the tedious process of trying to reconcile differences between the two bills.

But one thing seems certain: The average taxpayer will face no increase in federal income taxes, at least until January 1978.

Rep. Al Ullman, D-Ore., who will head the House conferees, indicated Friday that he favors the general approach taken by the Senate on individual taxes, which was to freeze them at current levels through Dec. 31, 1977. The House bill would extend current tax cuts, originally enacted last year, only through the end of this year.

The individual tax cuts now in effect are worth about $180 a year to a typical family of four with an income of $15,000.

Extension of the individual tax cuts, along with across-the-board tax reductions that were voted for businesses last year, represents the major part of the 2,000-page bill voted by the Senate.

But the measure contains an estimated 300 other provisions.

There are special tax breaks for parents of college students, for housewives, the elderly and working parents, and a complete rewriting of the estate tax law.

There are across-the-board tax breaks for businesses, especially for oil companies, life-insurance companies, airlines, railroads and shipbuilders.

While the Senate bill is considerably more generous to investors and businessmen than is the House version, it still attempts to shut off some taxshelter abuses and to ensure that all high-income investors pay some taxes.

The Senate bill seeks to offer specific tax relief to the parents of college students, by allowing them to take a special tax credit; to homeowners, by letting them deduct the cost of energy-related home improvements; to working parents, by simplifying and liberalizing tax benefits to offset costs of child care, and to homemakers, by launching a program that eventually could lead to federally subsidized pensions for spouses who don't work outside the home.

By preliminary congressional estimates, the bill would raise $3.6 billion a year by 1981 by shutting off or reducing a variety of tax benefits, mainly for investors and businesses.

Midway Chatter

Through Friday the Herald has published over 125 pictures of winners and activities at the 1976 Pickaway County Fair. A lack of news space has been a daily problem this past week and there are many more pictures to publish. Not all of them will get into today's edition. The one's remaining will be in Monday and Tuesday editions.

There will be only a very few photographs of winners in the 4-H Horse and Pony Show. The show was delayed by rain and at dark Friday there were still many classes remaining.

One roll of film shot during the 1 p.m. picture taking session Friday was a fizzle. In order to give these youngsters an opportunity to have their pictures retaken, The Herald photographer will be at the 4-H and Grange Building on the fairgrounds from 11:30 a.m. until noon on Tuesday. Horse show winners may bring their trophies to this session. No horses, please.

Herald employees responsible for what we believe is our finest coverage ever of the Pickaway County Fair are Dave Arney, city editor and chief photographer; Tom Spring, OUS journalism student who has been a parttime staff member for the past couple of years. Meanwhile, back at the office, editorial staff members Marion Sines, Sue Boyer, Craig Allison and Bill McGaffney helped out by taking over the daily routines and writing the results of some of the classes. And without the hard work and cooperation of our composing, camera and press room personnel, none of this would have been possible.

The results of the Junior Fair dairy show disappeared and nobody seems to know where, Steve Bartels reported. The placings of that event will not be published for that reason.

The last day of the fair is always just a little sad for the many youngsters participating. It marks the end of a very busy summer for most of them and signals the approach of school.

Weather

Cloudy with showers and thunderstorms today and tonight. Partly cloudy with a chance of showers Sunday..High Friday, 83; low, 61. High will be in the low 70s today and Sunday. Low tonight near 60. 70 per cent chance of rain today and tonight, 40 per cent chance of rain on Sunday.

State Department Sex Bias Claimed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department, stung by the filing of a sex discrimination suit, admits there aren't many women in the diplomatic corps, but says the number is increasing.

Statistics on the number of women diplomats were made available Friday after a federal suit was filed earlier this week claiming that the department discriminates against women in hiring, promotion and assignments.

The filing of the class action suit was the week's second embarrassment for

Arms Sales To Iran Defended

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger says the continuation of major arms sales to Iran is essential to American national security, a stable Middle East and to balancing Soviet power.

"The President, the Secretary of State and the government of the United States do appreciate the nature of this relationship," Kissinger said in a toast at a dinner in his honor Friday night.

Kissinger concludes two days of talks on arms, oil and nuclear reactors in a meeting today with Iranian Finance Minister Hushang Ansary at a formal session of the U.S.-Iranian economic commission.

In his toast, Kissinger criticized a recent Senate committee report questioning the size and wisdom of U.S. military sales to Iran.

The report said the United States has sold Iran $10 billion in arms since 1972 and 24,000 Americans have gone there in connection with the sales, thus raising questions of American involvement in Iran.

The report also charged that Iran had mismanaged the program and lacked technical ability to absorb the new, sophisticated weapons.

Kissinger said the report's charge of a serious American involvement was misleading. He said only 11,000 of the 24,000 Americans in Iran were engaged in military-related work and the rest were on civilian business or were dependents.

the State Department in the area of hiring practices.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger was heckled and booed in Boston on Monday after being asked during a talk to the National Urban League to explain why there are fewer blacks in the State Department than in other federal agencies.

Kissinger touched off the negative response when he answered: "The requirements for entry into the State Department are generally more complicated than they are for other agencies. It serves nobody's purpose to appoint black personnel unless they fulfill all the qualifications."

The next day, State Department officials hurriedly produced figures on black hiring, saying 4.3 per cent of the foreign service personnel are black. The sex discrimination suit was filed the same day.

In the figures released Friday, the department said women represent 9 per cent or 312 of a total Foreign Service Officer Corps listed as 3,461. This is an increase of 3 per cent over the past decade, the department said.

Wider Coal Strike Seen

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — Coal miners gathered Friday and began mapping plans to shut down the entire nation's soft coal industry by next week.

"Nobody is going to stop this strike until we get what we want," coal miner Douglas Wriston told a rally Friday on the steps of the state Capitol. "Local union presidents and district presidents ain't going to stop it and (UMW President) Arnold Miller sure as hell ain't."

About 1,000 persons attended the rally, waving placards and cheering as each speaker urged miners to stay off the job.

Following the session, miners gathered in small groups to elect leaders in each UMW District who will coordinate picketing efforts and other strike activities.

Meetings were scheduled for Sunday in Cedar Grove and Monday in Washington to discuss the strike which has idled 90,000 workers in eight states.

Convention Could Dump Schweiker

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of Ronald Reagan's key conservative backers say there's a strong, organized effort to dump his hand-picked running mate, Sen. Richard Schweiker, if Reagan captures the Republican presidential nomination.

Three congressmen, all influential Reagan backers, said Friday that if Reagan wins the GOP nomination at the party's convention some supporters may seek to have the vice presidential nomination decided by the convention delegates.

Meanwhile, President Ford is accelerating his search for a running mate. White House spokesman Ron Nessen said Ford associates today will begin contacting persons who have been recommended for consideration on a Ford ticket.

"They'll be asked to keep the contact confidential," Nessen said Friday. He declined to indicate how many persons will be asked to submit health and financial information on a confidential basis, with the understanding that it would be made public if they were chosen.

Despite assurances from Reagan and Schweiker, many conservative Republicans have voiced concern about the Reagan candidacy since the selection of Schweiker, owner of a liberal voting record while representing Pennsylvania in the Senate since 1969.

"There are telephone calls and letters criss-crossing this country like crazy," said Sen. Jesse Helms of North Carolina, a Reagan backer. "I could name you a hundred prominent Republicans who have said they are sticking with Reagan but Schweiker is another story."

Rep. Tom Curtis, Reagan's state chairman in Missouri, said he has discussed with other Reagan backers the possibility of an open ballot for the vice presidential nomination.

Reagan's choice of Schweiker has not caused any mass defection of delegates, an Associated Press delegate survey has shown. But nine days before the convention's start, Ford still is leading with 1,103 delegates to Reagan's 1,034. There are 122 uncommitted delegates, and it takes 1,130 for nomination.

The AP total counts only those delegates publicly stating a preference or legally bound — not those leaning toward a candidate.

Ford met with some delegates from South Carolina and Virginia Friday. One previously uncommitted South Carolina delegate, Raymond W. Sifly of Orangeburg, said afterwards he has decided to support Ford.

Reagan and Schweiker head into West Virginia today after chasing after delegates in Schweiker's home state Friday.

On the Democratic side, presidential candidate Jimmy Carter remained at his Plains, Ga., home for a long weekend before traveling Monday to Washington, where he is scheduled to give a consumer speech to the Public Citizens Forum.

Consumer crusader Ralph Nader will visit Carter in Plains today to brief the candidate on consumer issues.

Plains will have another Washington visitor next week. CIA director George Bush will travel there Thursday to give Carter a second foreign policy briefing, the White House said Friday.

McCarthy Against Vice Presidents

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Vice presidents — who needs 'em?

Not independent presidential candidate Eugene McCarthy.

"I'd eliminate the office, really," McCarthy said Friday, even though he has not decided himself whether to choose a running mate.

One alternative, he suggested half-jokingly, "would be to run somebody for vice president and let him pick a presidential running mate."

Seriously, he added, one way to replace the current system by which a presidential nominee chooses a running mate "is to provide for an interim occupant and arrange for a national election" when a president dies.

McCarthy commented at a news conference prior to attending a fund-raising dinner in nearby East Lansing.

Judicial Confusion

Various courts have approved "affirmative action" orders under which women or members of minority groups are given preferred status for promotion on grounds of prior discrimination. Courts also have upheld the right of better qualified individuals bypassed for promotion in such cases to sue on grounds of reverse discrimination.

Put the two concepts together in one employment situation and the result is utter confusion. That was the circumstance AT&T found itself in as a result of two court cases.

In the first, the giant communications company was ordered to promote a female employee under an "affirmative action" decree. Later, a male employee sued in a different court on grounds he was better qualified for the promotion—and won a damage judgment.

The second judge even plauded the results of the first case, but said it wasn't fair to the plaintiff who appeared before him to bear the brunt of the first action. The result is that AT&T was forced to fill a job with someone who was not its first choice, and then forced to pay damages to the individual who presumably would have been its first choice.

Somewhere along the way the judiciary is going to have to collect its thought processes. Such "heads I win, tails you lose" verdicts do nothing to enhance respect for the law.

Vive La France!

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — According to a French doctor, the day surely is coming when organized labor will seek midday "sex breaks" as a fringe benefit in union contracts.

Wild, you say? Not at all, says Dr. Rene Tordjman. It's already happening in Paris...

While American companies are offering their employees "exercise breaks" — for jogging, handball, calisthenics or simple strolls around the corporate grounds, as a means of keeping workers happy and healthy, a Paris employer has granted the workingman a "bed benefit."

Machine tool operator M. Claude Spessier signed the very special contract last year which allows him to take two hours off any afternoon to have "conjugal relations" with his wife.

The employer says Claude is a happier man and a more productive worker.

Spessier says the sex plan may have saved his marriage.

And Dr. Tordjman, who is a sexologist with the French Association of Family Consultation Centers, feels this could be the start of a new era in satisfactory labor relations. He has conducted a nationwide survey of workers and claims that the "sexual aspect" has been the missing link in union endeavors to improve the working man's lot.

"They've increased his pay, shortened his hours, improved safety conditions at his work and lengthened his vacation periods," says Tordjman, "but still the working man is not content. Why not? The answer is sex. The average worker's sex life is poor to barely adequate."

It seems that most working men and women (seven out of 10, in France) don't object to their jobs. They even like them. But what with the fatigue of traveling to and from work at peak hours, having to do household chores at home and take care of children, many of them (five out of 10) just don't have much zest for sex. Tordjman lamented, "Many of those we interviewed had sexual relations only during their vacations or sometimes - but not regularly - on weekends. They simply can't find time during the working week and often, they or their mates are even too tired on Friday and Saturday nights."

This heartbreaking picture is compounded by the fact that workingmen sense that their bosses have really good sex lives. "This isn't necessarily true, of course, but they won't be persuaded otherwise," says Tordjman. To the working classes, it appears that anybody who can afford a limousine and servants must have plenty of time for bedded opportunities.

According to Bernard Kaplan, who broke the news from Paris, there is a growing feeling that unless workers have "a minimum standard of sexual opportunity," there could be a crisis in worker apathy, followed by psychological problems and - sacrebleu! - possibly a general sex strike.

One shudders to imagine the consequences. If sex becomes part of labor negotiations in France, can the U.S. be far behind?

"Never!" says a union negotiator in New York, who refuses to be identified until he has taken up the matter with the A.F.L.-C.I.O., United Mine Workers, Policemen's Benevolent Association, etc., etc. "Frankly, I haven't heard any sex talk, on an official plane, but once the word gets around it could be an interesting demand for discussion at the next meeting. Employers are extremely health-conscious these days, and sex breaks would fall in neatly with the current movement toward recreational exercise programs."

An informal survey of office workers here indicates, however, that the "sex issue" may be months, possibly years, in the discussion stage. Eroticism and economics seem an unlikely combination. The logistical problems, many employees said, would make it all but impossible in major metropolitan areas, unless management was willing to pick up the tab for taxis and commuter trains. And women workers were eight to 10 against the concept, appearing to prefer a tennis break to midday conjugal relations. "There's a lot of difference," observed one secretary, "between a contractual right and a conjugal urge."

And, as one executive philosophized, "If the average male workingman were capable of making love on a regular basis in the afternoon, he would not be the average workingman at all. He would be the world's most successful entrepreneur..."

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors surprised a lot of people, shareholders and union officials among them, with the timing of its announcement this week that it was restoring its quarterly dividend to 85 cents a share.

Although the world's largest manufacturer had declared a special 50 cent dividend earlier this year it has left the quarterly rate at the recession level of 60 cents. Industry analysts thought it would continue.

Among the reasons given was the company's need to retain capital for expansion and the "necessity" of waiting until wage negotiations were over, lest workers use the dividend increase as an argument for a pay raise.

GM didn't listen to the analysts. After recording an amazing profit of $909 million in the second quarter, and expecting a strong third quarter as well, it decided to turn over close to $244 million to shareholders.

That, roughly, is the sum that 85 cents a share equals when multiplied by 287 million, which is about the number of shares owned by about 1,325,000 GM shareholders.

You may be sure that critics of GM will be quick to argue that this $244 million represents a rakeoff by the rich, ignoring the simple division that reduces it to $107.40 per shareholder.

GM is huge, and because of this it produces huge numbers — of cars, sales, dividends, wages, profits, taxes. Its sales figure is to many people almost incomprehensible, some $35.7 billion in 1975, but all GM numbers are that way.

Last year it employed 681,000 men and women, and that was a depressed figure; in 1974 its employment was 734,000. Its payrolls last year totaled more than $10 billion, and yet 1973 was a bigger year for payrolls.

Since it is so big, the numbers sometimes obscure the fact that GM, and other large companies too, are social organizations into which many people contribute and from which many people receive benefits.

More surprising than the fact of a dividend restoration at what some people consider a strategically bad time is the distribution of the enormous revenues that flow into GM.

Last year, according to the GM annual report, 53.4 per cent went to suppliers, 34 per cent to workers, 6.6 per cent to taxes, 2.5 per cent for depreciation, 2 per cent to stockholders, 1.5 per cent for "use in business."

In 1973 the company paid more than $2.1 billion in U.S., foreign and other income taxes. Last year, a relatively depressed one, the total still remained over $1 billion.

All this is not a defense of big business, but merely a reminder that there is more to a company like GM than pollution, defective equipment recalls, layoffs and strikes, big executive salaries and high vehicle prices.

INTERNATIONAL WINNER — Denise Whitehead, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Whitehead, 593 Sycamore Dr., earned first place in International Foods.

Paul Starr, head grid coach at Circleville High School, sounded his first call for candidates for the football team.

At least nine of the 1,222 school buses ordered Friday by the state of Ohio are destined for use in Circleville and Pickaway County. Fritz Jacob, city superintendent, said his school board's order included three for Circleville and George McDowell, county superintendent, said the county's order included six for Westfall.

The second Baptist Church, 130 W. Mill St., observed its 99th anniversary with special services and programs. Raymond Phifer was chairman of the anniversary committee.

LAFF - A - DAY

"He does his best thinking out there. Right now he's thinking how to get out of drying the dishes."

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

There has been a dramatic decline recently in the mortality statistics of coronary heart disease.

Dr. Weldon J. Walker, director of the Cardiovascular Department of the White Memorial Center in Los Angeles, has released a report in the medical magazine, "Modern Medicine."

It was noted that during World War II, when there was a marked shortage of food, especially eggs and animal fat, cardiovascular mortality in Norway and Sweden declined considerably.

When these foods became available again there was an increase of atherosclerosis and mortality statistics.

The international publicity about cholesterol, dietary fats, cigarettes and early treatment of high blood pressure has paid off in remarkable dividends in the United States.

Dr. Walker states, "The greatest decrease in smoking has been among middle-aged and older men, who are at high risk of coronary disease and account for most coronary deaths."

"Therefore, the decrease of smoking in this group produced the major overall decline in coronary mortality. Even greater reduction of mortality is inevitable if children are taught lifetime dietary habits that will prevent the formation of atherosclerosis (plaques of calcium) in the blood vessels.

Intensive educational programs that will keep teenagers from embarking on smoking will add enormously to the prevention of heart disease in the following generations.

Consider some of these factors that are now known to be vital to survival, as published in a statistical survey.

"A man whose blood pressure is over 150 has more than two times the risk of heart attacks and nearly four times the risk of a stroke as compared to a man whose blood pressure is under 120." Add to this "a man with a blood cholesterol of 250 or more has about three times the risk of a heart attack and stroke of a man with a cholesterol level of below 194."

And finally, a man who smokes more than a pack of cigarettes a day has nearly twice the risk of heart attack and five times the risk of stroke as a non-smoker."

Think about this. Men and women must all think about this, and consider the joy of planned survival.

CHAMPION GUERNSEY — Mike Fausnaugh, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fausnaugh, Route 3, had the Grand Champion Guernsey cow at the fair.

They'll Do It Every Time

NOVELTY CAKE — Sandy Dixon, Route 2, Ashville, won the novelty cake category with the decorated train cake.

YEARLING CLASS — Acott Ratcliff, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raybourn Ratcliff, Route 1, Orient, won first place in the Yearling class.

Car Fire Checked

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies received a call of a car fire at 12:35 p.m. Friday.

Robert L. Muncy, Route 1, Ashville, had been at Morrison's Market in Ashville for a short period when he noticed his car was on fire.

According to Deputy William Carmean's report, an electrical short apparently caused the fire, which resulted in extensive damage to the air conditioning wiring and the dashboard.

Robert Duvall, Commercial Point, informed deputies that someone had driven through his corn field, located on Howell Road, between August 2 and August 6.

The vandals drove over the corn in a "figure eight" pattern. Damage was set at $150.

WINNING FRIENDS — Marilyn List, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron List, 6476 Tarlton Road, won first place in Breads I and second place in Child Care III, and Joan Goode, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goode, 6819 Tarlton Road, won first place in senior creative arts, first in Child Care III, and outstanding in Breads I.

MEDICAL CAREERS — Reta Gulick, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gulick, 355 Sunset Drive, took first place in medical careers.

HORSEMAN AND SHOWMAN — Drew Wisecup, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wisecup, Route 1, Williamsport, won Horsemanship and Showmanship in the 12 and under class at the Horse Show.

ORDINANCE NO. 89-76
FOR RECORD PURPOSES ONLY SECTION II OF THE RIDGEWOOD SUBDIVISION IN THE CITY OF CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO.

WHEREAS, the L. G. Fairway Corporation has presented to this Council a plat of a subdivision of certain property owned by said corporation known as Section II Ridgewood Subdivision, which said plat has been prepared by Dumond Sifford & Associates, Engineers-Surveyors of Circleville, Ohio; and

WHEREAS, the necessary improvements required of subdivisions within the City of Circleville have been installed and accepted by the City of Circleville; and

WHEREAS, a performance bond has been given by the L. G. Fairway Corporation to the City of Circleville to cover those improvements not yet completed; and

WHEREAS, the plat of Section II of the Ridgewood Subdivision has been approved by the Circleville Planning and Zoning Commission of the City of Circleville and dated July 19, 1976; NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CIRCLEVILLE, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1: That the plat of Section II Ridgewood Subdivision is hereby approved for record purposes only and the Clerk of the Council is hereby authorized and directed to endorse upon the said plat the approval of this Council.

SECTION 2: That the approval of the said plat for recording purposes only does not constitute acceptance by this Council of the proposed streets shown thereon as public streets.

50th Lanman Reunion Held In Pataskala

CELEBRATION — After 50 years the Lanman family reunion is still an annual celebration. This year the bicentennial made it a special event. The decorated cake and banner shown with the family indicates the enthusiasm they have for continuing reunions.

The 50th annual Lanman family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lanman of Pataskala.

In observance of the bicentennial and the 50 years of reunion a large cake was decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Frank Wharton of Ashville was the oldest member of the family present, and Lisa Yeatts of Circleville was the youngest.

Present for the picnic dinner, swimming, games and visiting were: Art Lanman, Mr. and Mrs. John

Mrs. Roy Hart Jr. Feted With Shower

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Roy Hart Jr. was given recently in the K of P Hall in Stoutsville.

Games played were won by Mrs. Patsi Eveland, Mrs. Choe Johnson and Mrs. Peggy Davis.

Guests were: Mrs. Roy Hart Sr. and Ranelle, Mrs. Peggy Davis, and Mrs. Patsi Eveland, South Bloomingville; Mrs. Mark Peters, Mrs. Kate Wynkoop, Mrs. Alfreda Ratcliff, Mrs. Debbie Ratcliff, Stoutsville.

Miss Debbie Johnson, Columbus; Mrs. Irma Wynkoop, Thornville; Mrs. Judy Young, Tarlton; Mrs. Jim Peters, Amanda; Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, Brenda and Robin, Laurelville; Mrs. Vesta Bender, Mrs. Sherry Noble and Mrs. Pam Notestone and Mickey, Lancaster. Mrs. Mary Frazier, Adelphi; Miss Lisa Rhodes, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Choe Johnston, Homestead, Fla.

Sending gifts were Chip Eveland, Matthew and Crystal Noble, Georgia Callihan and Mrs. Diane Rhodback.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Carolyn Johnson and her daughters.

Bridge Club Plans Championship Game

Twenty-six people played in the August Pairs game of Circleville Duplicate Bridge Club on Wednesday evening at the YMCA Building. Winners were (Average 60) 1. Terri De Frank and Ken Knox 78, 2. Lois Crawford and Virginia McKinley 69, 3. Faith and Bob Fraser 66.85, 4. Dorothy Liston and Mary Lou Mowery 65.7, 5. Vince De Frank and Margaret Knox 64, 6. Eileen and George Huskey 62.

Madeline Sanders will continue the Summer Novice series with a discussion on The Finesse, how to finesse, when to finesse. August 11 is the date at 7 p.m.

A Summer Championship game is planned for August 18 at 7 p.m.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Mom Forestalls Hasty Marriage

DEAR ABBY: I am an American serviceman who has been stationed in Korea for six months. The first week I arrived here I met "Sun," a beautiful Korean girl who was selling paintings for a church fund raiser. She is a deaf-mute, but we were able to communicate well enough to become better acquainted. We became inseparable, and within three months we knew we were in love.

I wrote to my mother asking for permission to marry Sun. (My father is deceased.) My mother wrote back saying she is against it. That's my problem, Abby. I am only 19 and cannot marry without my mother's consent, until I reach 21.

My mother says I am too young to marry, but I think her real reason is she doesn't want a Korean deaf-mute for a daughter-in-law.

Sun and I are very much in love. I know in my heart that we were meant for each other. Sun's parents are both dead, and I am all she has. I know she would make a wonderful wife. Can you help me?

SAD PFC

DEAR SAD: Talk to your chaplain. And consider this: A Korean girl with normal speech and hearing may have difficulty adjusting to a Western society, but a deaf-mute could be overwhelmed by the task. To bring Sun home as your bride could be terribly unfair to her. If your love was meant to be, it will endure until you are 21. Be patient.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 40 years, and all the years of my married life my husband has had other women. He never had the same one for very long, but it has been one after the other.

He has always been a loving and generous husband and a wonderful father to our children, and I know he loves me. He has never embarrassed me by going out in public with another woman, but as discreet as he was, somehow I always found out. I have asked him several times why he needs other women, because I am by nature a very affectionate person. He gets defensive and has no answer.

I love him dearly, and would never consider leaving him, but the older I get, the more it hurts. I am 60 and he is 63.

Can you advise me?

TROUBLED AT 60
DEAR TROUBLED: You say you love him, and I believe you do. To "love" a person is to accept him with all his faults, weaknesses and imperfections.

Don't dwell on his infidelity. (Who can know the most intimate needs of another?) No one has everything.

DEAR ABBY: What has happened to people? I work as a maid in a motel that is part of a very popular chain. We're full most of the time.

Our guests wouldn't think of having a cup of coffee and not leaving a small tip for the waitress. But the maid who cleans up their room never gets a thing.

I change the bed linen, scrub and disinfect the bathroom, pick up the soiled towels, and even gather up trash that's been thrown near, but not all, in the trash can.

Sure, we get paid for what we do. But considering the way most people mess up a motel room, it takes a lot of extra work, so an extra dollar would be appreciated.

I hope you don't miss when you crumble this up and aim for your wastebasket, Abby.

JUST A MOTEL MAID
DEAR JUST: I aimed your letter at my typewriter, not my wastebasket. Perhaps a gentle reminder to all those summer travelers may help.

Solaqua Garden Club To Meet Friday

Solaqua Garden Club will meet 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Parish House of Scioto Chapel United Methodist Church. The program regarding dahlias will be presented by Mrs. C. W. Hedges.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Taes, Mrs. Frank Noggle and Mrs. Cecil Ward.

Birthday Party Honors Nurse

A birthday party was held at Cottage 3, Orient State Institute, recently honoring Mrs. Marie Bowsher. Mrs. Nancy Stills, coordinator of the cottage, baked the cake for the occasion. Mrs. Bowsher has served 25 years in the State Nursing Service.

Legal Problems Of Elderly Training Session Topic

A training session concerning the legal problems of the elderly with the focus on public benefits was held July 29 and July 30 at Urbana College. This two day program was sponsored by the Ohio Commission on Aging and the speakers and consultants were Meredith Trotter and Suzy Ryder of the Cincinnati Legal Aid Society and Martha Sweterlitch from the Ohio Council on Aging.

Wanda Hamilton, Supporting Services, Pickaway County Senior Center, attended this session.

The program on the first day was centered around Social Security.

Medicare, SSI, General Relief, Food Stamps, Medicaid, Medical Only and Emergency Assistance and who is entitled or eligible for them.

The second day was discussion on the medical programs and special problems in the Welfare and Social Security Systems. An explanation was given on how to reply to an overpayment of Social Security or SSI and also Disability Determinations.

Explanations how to handle the procedures of these programs were given. They explained some of the good and the bad of guardianships and powers of attorney.

If anyone has a question or feel they would like to know more about any of these programs for the elderly or if any elderly person has a problem they may call Mrs. Hamilton at the Senior Center 474-4916 or 474-8209.

Little Change Seen In Jobless Rate

The Circleville Herald, Saturday August 7, 1976

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unemployment increased for the second month in a row in July, rising from 7.5 to 7.8 per cent, and leaving more people out of work than at any time in the past seven months, the government said today.

The Ford administration has predicted unemployment of less than 7 per cent by December.

But administration economists were somewhat confounded in June when the unemployment rate reversed a steady decline and edged upward by two-tenths of 1 per cent from 7.3 per cent in May.

The number of Americans holding jobs advanced to a June record, but the number of unemployed swelled to the 7.14-million level. And that was the largest number of people out of work since January, when 7.29 million were unemployed.

The growth rate in the economy was cut in half in the second quarter of this year and goes a long way toward explaining why unemployment didn't improve much over the first six months of the year.

But John W. Kendrick, chief economist for the Commerce Department, says the job picture is being complicated by above-average growth in both productivity and labor force.

Productivity, or the volume of goods or services produced per hour worked, traditionally rises during an economic recovery. Employers use their most efficient facilities when they're running at less than full capacity, as they are now. And they wait until they are getting the most out of those already at work, usually preferring to pay overtime before calling furloughed workers back.

Kendrick noted that early this year productivity was 5 per cent ahead of a year ago, which is slightly above average.

Even more dramatic, however, he said, has been the growth in the number of people looking for work compared with previous recoveries at a similar stage.

It's not unusual that during a recession some workers simply drop out of the labor force, if for no other reason than they feel looking for a job is hopeless. Then, when things pick up, they're back out knocking on doors and swelling the ranks of the unemployed.

Kendrick's computations show that this phenomenon, along with normal population growth, has pushed up the size of the civilian labor force by 3 per cent since the low point in the recession. The average labor force growth in other recoveries at this point in their development was 1.3 per cent, he said.

Stabilized Beef Production Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Beef production should stabilize by the end of the coming winter, Agriculture Department economists say. But that means higher prices for consumers over the next few years.

This picture emerged Thursday in talks with USDA officials after the Outlook and Situation Board released its latest analysis of the livestock and meat industries:

Sheep Open Show Winners Announced

Breeders had excellent showing in the Sheep Open Show.

Kenneth Stoltz captured first place in all the Shropshire and Rambouillet classes, and most of the classes in Columbian. However, Regina Bluck exhibited the best yearling Columbia ewe and went on to claim the reserve champion ewe.

The Lowell Williams Family swept prizes in the Montdale class, Stoltz again was king of the Southdowns, and Rodney Wildermuth captured all the Corriedale classes.

Jim Klamfoth captured all the prizes in the Suffolk classes and Jim Westhoven had first places in all the Dorset classes except for the pair of ewe lambs and reserve champion ewe which was won by Candy Kane Farm.

David Schiff and Dr. R. A. Masterson and Sons shared honors in the Hampshire class. Schiff had the champion ram and champion ewe, while Masterson had the reserve animal in both classes.

Grand Jury Meets In 4th Session

The April Grand Jury met Friday in its fourth session and returned 26 indictments. County Prosecutor Richard Gerhardt presented ten witnesses to testify before the grand jury. Several of the 26 indictments returned were secret.

Those indicted included Michael H. Huff for forgery; William L. Uhl for aggravated assault; Michael E. Patterson for felonious assault; and Bruce W. London for three counts of grand theft and one count of vandalism.

—The current downswing in the number of cattle in the United States may be the largest in half a century.

—The 1976 calf crop is the smallest in five years, at an estimated 47 million head. Since that's where future beef must come from, the reductions by ranchers losing money this year will automatically limit potential hikes in production next year.

—If the huge corn crop now predicted does come in that way this fall, and if cattle feeders do decide to reverse their present trend and start feeding grain to substantial numbers of cattle again, as forecast beef supplies through next year should stabilize at present levels.

—Prices to ranchers for grain-fed cattle, which were the lowest in four years for the first half of 1976, should start rising in this quarter and continue increasing until the first three months of 1977 when production picks up again.

—The count of cattle and calves on farms at midyear was 133.5 million head, a drop in a year's time of 4.65 per cent, or 6.5 million head. Beef supplies still are running 5 to 6 per cent ahead of any previous high point in U.S. history.

The board's George Hoffman said beef production should start turning higher toward the end of next year. But the smaller inventory of calves now and further cuts in herds this fall will limit that.

Hoffman said stability of production will not assure supermarket price stability — a major factor in ultimate demand — because consumer incomes are rising.

"If we continue to have increases of 5 to 6 per cent in disposable income each year, we'll have a 5 to 6 per cent increase in demand, too, if the long-term growth patterns hold.

"If the supply is stable, prices then will have to go up 5 to 6 per cent in response to that demand," he said.

One of the factors that will help control those prices, at both the farm level and retail, he said, is the upturn in production of pork after 18 months of a restricted supply.

Hog slaughter last year was the lowest in 20 years.

The board's report projected average increases in pork production in each of the next three quarters of between 15 and 17 per cent. That would keep the total red meat supply above last year's levels before the seasonal wintertime drop.

Buffalo Bills Face Cincinnati Bengals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Buffalo Bills continue their almost impossible experiment today as they try and find a substitute for Orange Juice.

As any football fan knows, substitutes like grapefruit juice won't do because this Orange Juice is a very special one—O.J. Simpson.

The Bills have not been very successful thus far trying to find someone to replace Simpson, the National Football League's premier running back who has rushed for 1,000 or more yards four straight seasons.

Last week, in its first preseason game, Buffalo tried rookies Darnell Powell and Joe Lowery, and between them they gained 51 yards, only half the work Simpson usually does when he is in uniform. The Bills will try the pair again Saturday when they play the Cincinnati Bengals in Cincinnati.

The game is one of a full exhibition schedule that extends from Friday to Monday night. In two games Friday night Baltimore beat Washington 20-3 and San Diego defeated New England 26-17 at Norman, Okla.

In the only afternoon game today, Cleveland plays Atlanta at Stillwater, Okla. At night, Dallas plays at Los Angeles in a nationally-televised game at 10 p.m., EDT. Minnesota plays at Kansas City, St. Louis plays Oakland at Phoenix, New Orleans plays at Houston, Tampa Bay and Green Bay clash at Milwaukee and Chicago and Seattle oppose each other at Spokane, Wash.

On Sunday afternoon, Miami plays at Detroit and Denver at San Francisco, and then on Monday night the New York Giants play at the New York Jets and Pittsburgh travels to Philadelphia.

Simpson has been holding out because he wants to be traded to a West Coast team nearer his California home. The Bills apparently tried, but obviously have not yet worked out anything.

Cincinnati, which had one of the worst running attacks in the NFL last season, appears to have found its answer in twotime Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin of Ohio State. Griffin ran for 49 yards to help the Bengals beat Green Bay 23-17 last week.

In a number of the other games Saturday, the eyes will be more on young quarterbacks trying to rid themselves of that substitute tag.

At Los Angeles, Rams coach Chuck

Knox no doubt will be focusing much of his attention on quarterback Ron Jaworski, who will be starting.

Kansas City coach Paul Wiggin plans to start veteran Mike Livingston, but also wants to get a good look at former World Football League star Tony Adams, who is scheduled to take over in the second quarter.

Bobby Scott gets his starting shot with New Orleans with Bobby Douglass in the wings and Archie Manning injured.

Green Bay will get a second look at their new quarterback, Lynn Dickey. Jim Zorn, a left-hander who was cut by Dallas last season, gets his first pro start for Seattle after he entered in the second half last week and passed for two scores and ran for a third.

North Edges South, 13-12

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Old Man Weather, delivering a near lethal blow for the second straight year, may have the Ohio high school all-star football game near a knockout.

First, it was mid-90 degree heat that hit the contest in 1975, its first year in mammoth Ohio Stadium. Only 7,500 fans showed up.

Then, an unrelenting rainstorm pelted the all-stars Friday night. Just 6,060 viewed the North's sixth successive triumph over the South 13-12.

It was a disappointing evening for Pickaway County fans who turned out to see Circleville's All-Ohio tailback Biff Bumgarner perform for the South team.

As it turned out, the South coaches chose to use Bumgarner in a limited role — As a matter of fact — A very limited role.

The talented Tiger saw action on two kickoff teams and was used as a fullback for three plays in one series in the second quarter. He was used as a fake carrier twice and carried once for two yards.

This was all the action he saw as he spent the rest of the evening standing on the sidelines in a driving rainstorm.

"We're not ready to give up yet," said game director Chuck Burner.

He does concede the sponsoring Ohio High School Football Coaches Association will take a hard look at the contest at its directors meeting in December.

"If we had had good weather, we expected between 17,000 and 20,000. The advance sale was twice as good as last year," said Burner.

Rock Hontas, a Canton McKinley quarterback going to Tulane University, provided the one-point margin with his toe. Hontas line drove a placement kick over the goal posts late in the third quarter.

Little Tigers Set Fitness Programs

Summer Physical Fitness Running Program for all boys who are interested in playing ninth grade football will begin Monday 7:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. on the high school football practice field.

The program will consist of warm-up exercises, agility and quickness drills, 110-yard sprints, 40-yard sprints, and endurance drills. The program will be conducted five nights a week (Monday-Friday).

The Summer Physical Fitness Running Program will help to prepare ninth grade boys for their four days of two-a-day non-contact drills which will begin August 25, 1976.

Coaches Bob Willard and Dick Walters will be in charge of these workouts and ninth grade boys who are interested in playing freshmen football are not only welcome to attend these workouts, but are encouraged to do so.

Summer Physical Fitness Running Program for all boys who are interested in playing seventh and eighth grade football will also begin on Monday 6:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. at the South Court Street Elementary School.

The program will consist of warm-up exercises, agility and quickness drills, 110 yard sprints, 40 yard sprints, and endurance drills. The program will be conducted 3 nights a week (Monday-Wednesday-Friday).

The Summer Physical Fitness Running Program will help to prepare seventh and eighth grade boys for their four days of one-a-day non-contact practice sessions which will begin August 25, 1976.

Coaches John Edgar and Neil Handler will be in charge of these workouts and any seventh and eighth boy who is interested in playing seventh and eighth grade football are not only welcome to attend these workouts, but are encouraged to do so.

Reds Flatten Dodgers, 7-4

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sparky Anderson, the manager of the Cincinnati Reds, still refuses to claim victory in the National League West, even after flattening Los Angeles twice and taking a staggering 11-game lead.

"It still won't be a runaway," Sparky said Friday night after Joe Morgan's ninth inning homer broke a 3-3 tie and touched off a four-run inning as the Reds whipped the Dodgers, 7-4, before 48,627 at Dodger Stadium.

The victory was the Reds' ninth in their last 10 games, eighth in 10 meetings with the Dodgers and snapped Rick Rhoden's win streak at nine straight by handing the Los Angeles right-hander his first setback.

Rhoden was victimized by an error charged to right-fielder Reggie Smith in the third inning, leading to three unearned runs. It was a long drive by Morgan that Smith failed to hang on to, two runs scoring. George Foster then singled home Morgan, Foster's 94th run batted in, and the Reds led, 3-1.

Afterward, Morgan disagreed with the scoring call, saying, "If Garvey or Cey hit it, then it's a double and two RBIs. But I don't let that stuff bother me like I used to."

Dodger manager Walt Alston—and Smith, too—said the ball should have been caught.

Alston said, "He makes that play 90 per cent of the time."

All Smith said was, "I messed it up."

Still, the Dodgers caught up to tie. Steve Garvey's basesloaded sacrifice fly in the third scored one and then Ron Cey homered to lead off the sixth.

Rhoden survived the three-run third to keep the Reds hitless for five innings, retiring 13 batters in order before Morgan led off the ninth with his 19th home run.

Charlie Hough finally took over for Rhoden, Hough's ninth appearance in the Dodgers' last 10 games, but before he could get the side out the Reds had batted around, scoring three more times. Dave Concepcion singled home runs and Pete Rose singled home another.

Tommy John, 6-7, will try to keep whatever hopes the Dodgers have when he starts Saturday night against Cincinnati's Pat Zachry, 9-3. Three of Zachry's victories this season have come at the Dodgers' expense.

Two teams fighting for fifth place in a six-team division must struggle each night to find motivation. That was no problem for Carl Morton and Willie Montanez.

Morton, a professional pitcher, wanted to prove he could pitch and Montanez, a professional hitter, wanted to prove he could hit.

They both proved their points Friday night and led Atlanta to a 7-0 victory over San Francisco, giving the Braves a twogame bulge over the Giants in the race for fifth place in the National League West.

"Words can never express how trying this season has been," said Morton, who stymied the Giants on four hits to earn his second victory in 10 decisions. "I've never experienced anything like this."

Montanez, who was traded by the Giants to the Braves earlier this season, rapped out a home run and three singles while driving in a pair of runs to show up his old teammates.

Elsewhere in the NL, the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Philadelphia

Phillies 6-2; the Chicago Cubs beat the Montreal Expos twice, 6-5 in 13 innings and 1-0; the Cincinnati Reds stopped the Los Angeles Dodgers 7-4, and the San Diego Padres topped the Houston Astros 9-3. The game between the New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates was postponed because of rain.

Cardinals 6, Phillies 2

Willie Crawford's sacrifice fly snapped a 1-1 tie and the Cardinals, taking advantage of reliever Tug McGraw's error, scored three runs in the seventh to put the game away.

The victory was the Cardinals' fifth in their last 16 games.

Terry Humphrey led off the sixth with a single, took third on Lou Brock's single and scored the tie-breaking run on Crawford's sacrifice fly.

Cubs 6-1, Expos 5-0

Rick Monday's 19th homer of the year, coming in the 13th inning, gave Chicago the opener and Jerry Morales' 13th homer, a leadoff shot in the ninth, was the only run in the second game.

The losses were the woe of Expos' fourth and fifth in a row.

Chicago righthander Steve Stones tossed a four-hitter to win the second game. He struck out nine and walked one.

Padres 9, Astros 3

Tom Griffin, an Astro two days ago, came back to haunt his old teammates with an eight-inning effort before being relieved by Butch Metzger in the seventh inning.

Griffin raised his record to 6-3 and Metzger picked up his 10th save of the season.

Hassler, KC Trim Chisox, 9-2

By KEN RAPPOPORT

AP Sports Writer

Andy Hassler's on a winning streak—one in a row.

That may not sound like much, but it is after you've lost 18 straight games.

"I finally got the monkey off my back," said the Kansas City pitcher after a 9-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox in the first game of a twinght doubleheader Friday.

Hassler was so elated over his first victory since April 29, 1975, that he celebrated with a bottle of champagne. "I think it was Hal McRae's doing," Hassler said. "It was a pleasant surprise."

By winning, Hassler averted tying the American League record of 19 straight losses, set by H. John Nabors of Philadelphia in 1916. The major league record of 23 was set by Clifton Curtis of Boston of the National League in 1911.

The Royals swept the White Sox with an 8-3 decision in the second game.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Boston Red Sox nipped the Milwaukee Brewers 2-1; the Detroit Tigers turned back the Cleveland Indians 3-1; the Texas Rangers blanked the Minnesota Twins 6-0 and the California Angels defeated the Oakland A's 2-1. The Baltimore-New York game was postponed by rain.

Red Sox 2, Brewers 1

Carl Yastrzemski singled home Denny Doyle from second in the eighth inning to lead Boston past Milwaukee. Yastrzemski's hit broke a 1-1 tie and came with two outs and two men on, giving Tom Murphy, 3-5, the victory in relief of Rick Wise.

Milwaukee tied the game in the seventh inning.

Tigers 3, Indians 1

Dave Roberts, 11-11, pitched a seven-hitter while Rusty Staub, Ron LeFlore and Auerilio Rodriguez each drove in runs as Detroit snapped a fivegame losing streak by beating Cleveland.

Staub had staked Roberts to a 1-0 lead off Jackie Brown, 7-7, with a leadoff homer in the fourth. Detroit added a run in the seventh when Tom Verzyer singled, stole second and came home on a single by LeFlore. Detroit added an insurance run in the eighth when Thompson walked with two outs and scored on a double by Rodriguez.

Rangers 6, Twins 0

Gaylord Perry handcuffed Minnesota on five hits and Texas cashed a Roy Smalley first-inning error into three unearned runs to defeat the Twins. The 37-year old Perry worked his way out of a basesloaded jam in the fifth inning and went on to his 11th victory against eight losses.

Angels 2, A's 1

California left-hander Frank Tanana struck out 13 batters and allowed only four Oakland hits as the Angels beat the A's on Bobby Bonds' eighth-inning single to climb out of last place in the American League West. Tanana, 13-8, recorded eight strikeouts over the first three innings in his pitching duel against A's southpaw Vida Blue, 9-10. Blue struck out eight and scattered seven hits in a route-going performance.

Local K Of C Sets Softball Tourney

The sixth annual Knights of Columbus slow pitch softball tournament will be held Aug. 27, 28 and 29 at Ted Lewis Park.

Drawings for the double elimination A.S.A. sanctioned affair will be held 7:30 p.m. Aug. 24 at the K of C Building, Franklin and Pickaway Sts.

Trophies will be awarded to the top four teams, jackets to the winning team members and individual trophies for most home runs and hits.

For additional information contact Jim McConnell, 108 Rosewood Ave., Circleville, O. 43113, phone 614-474-4850.

Circleville Football Tickets Go On Sale

Chako Higuchi Golf Leader

SUNNINGDALE, England (AP)—Chako Higuchi, the little Japanese who has run away from the field in the European Women's Championship, would be a sensation if she would play more golf in the United States.

So says Sandra Palmer of Palm Springs, Calif., in a heart-felt tribute after coming out the loser in a tough thirdround battle with Mrs. Higuchi.

Mrs. Higuchi increased her lead over Miss Palmer from three strokes to five and the American said afterward, "She has beautiful timing. Her swing is perfect and she cuts like a dream. If she would come to the States, it wouldn't be long before she would win a major tournament."

Mrs. Higuchi, a professional since 1967, has only made infrequent appearances in the United States since playing there for the first time six years ago. Most of the time, she plays in Japan or neighboring countries.

In the third round here, Mrs. Higuchi shot a six-under-par 68.

After three rounds, Mrs. Higuchi was at 210, a massive 12 strokes under par. Miss Palmer was at 215 after a 70.

Mrs. Higuchi has led all the way so far on a card of 68-74-68 over Sunningdale's sun-baked 6,174-yard course. She was three strokes ahead of Miss Palmer after the second round and matched her hole for hole in the third round Friday, until an eagle on the 16th put her a further two strokes up.

Gary Trivisonno Wins Public Links Crown

HINCKLEY, Ohio (AP) — Bad news for Ohio public golfers: Gary Trivisonno plans to compete in at least the next two state tournaments.

"I'm going to finish college at Alabama and play in this until I finish school. Then I will turn pro," said Trivisonno, who at 19 has a pair of state public links championships.

His second came Friday when he powered his way to a two-under-par 71 for a 72-hole total of 285, five under par on the Hinckley Hills layout. His margin of victory was a whopping eight shots.

Individual Pistol Champ

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — Army M.Sgt. Emil Heugatter of Dalhart, Tex. won the National Trophy individual pistol title Friday by firing 289 out of a possible 300 in the final event of the national pistol matches here.

Caribbean Beef

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - Since large ships flying between Central America and the United States began carrying up to 100 refrigerated highway trailers, about 10 years ago, Caribbean nations have become major suppliers of beef to the U.S., according to Transway International Corp. Despite the great amount of cattle production by Florida, our south-eastern states have become major purchasers of this Caribbean beef.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SUNDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): One of the few occasions when mixing business with pleasure could prove profitable. In fact, you may make an important business contact at a social gathering.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Keep your head and maintain the pace that's best for you. Don't let others sway you with ideas of doubtful worth — especially if they involve heavy spending.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Travel accented here. A short trip made on the spur of the moment could produce most interesting results.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): A day for compromise — not for stirring things up. Use the always reliable "velvet glove" treatment.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): You may not be aware of it yet but, within 48 hours, some unusually good luck is coming your way from a most unexpected source.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Great joy on the home front? Some important papers you thought you had lost or accidentally destroyed suddenly come to light.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): It may take longer to get things rolling than anticipated, but keep at it. And with no letdown in enthusiasm! Romance in high favor.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): An "on-and-off" day, but you should come through handsomely if you stress your quietly clever manner of handling situations and your tact in dealing with others.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): You may have to make some small concessions now, but this would be better than losing out altogether. Some nice benefits indicated.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Be realistic and pursue only worthwhile goals. New opportunities offered through the use of your creative ability.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Everything points to a most interesting and inspiring day. You should be filled with new-found optimism and confidence.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): You may make a new acquaintance or renew an old friendship. Look for those "small" blessings and gains so often belittled. They could make your day!

YOU BORN TODAY are one of the most dynamic individuals in the entire zodiacal spectrum. A born leader, people follow you almost blindly, so it is important that you be extremely careful WHERE you lead. Good nature and magnanimity are also two of your outstanding traits and you are extremely generous with family and friends. However, you are inclined to "exact your price" from your beneficiaries — insisting, regally, that they bend to your will, even kowtow to you to a certain extent. Try to curb this trait since it is the one flaw which detracts from your otherwise magnetic personality. Fields in which you could be eminently successful: Business management, the theater, teaching, the law, art patronage or chemistry. Birthdate of: Esther Williams, noted swimmer and film star; Connie Stevens, singer; Andy Warhol, pop artist.

3 U.S. Drivers Vie In Formula 5000

LEXINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Three American drivers with different racing backgrounds will try to break the British and Australian hold on the Formula 5000 series Sunday at Mid-Ohio Sports Car course.

Two-time Indianapolis 500 winner Al Unser, former drag racing champion Danny Ongais and Grand Prix newcomer Brett Lunger will be in the field for the $67,250 race around Mid-Ohio's twisting 2.5-mile road course.

For Unser, it will be the last appearance in the Formula 5000 series. The Albuquerque, N.M., native, currently third in the series point standings, will pursue other driving efforts after Sunday.

Granny's Sneaker Wins Feature At Latonia

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Granny's Sneaker won the $2,500 featured pace mile in the ninth race Friday night at Latonia by a nose in 2:09.35 on a muddy track and paid $14.40, $7.20 and $4.60.

Laura Fay Stone placed, $55.20 and $3.80 and Saint Clair Flicka, third, $3.40.

Too Many Students

PRAGUE (AP) — Only three out of every five applicants, or 12 per cent of the preuniversity student population, will be able to attend Slovak universities this year.

Because of the increasing number of applications, only one out of five will be accepted by the law faculties and one out of three-and-a-half by medical schools. Out of every 12 students who wish to study psychology, only one will be able to do so.

Of the 106 pilots and scientists named as astronauts since April 1959, 10 have been Eagle Scouts.

Isaac Hammond made the first book jackets in the United States in Charleston, S.C., in 1890.

Russian Atom Test Embarrassment To President Ford

WASHINGTON (AP) The White House says it will no longer give the public details about the size of Soviet nuclear tests, following two "suspicious" underground explosions that could politically embarrass President Ford.

The State Department said Friday that congressional committees have been informed "on a classified basis" about the two Soviet underground tests.

State Department spokesman Frederick Z. Brown said the Joint Atomic Energy Committee and other "appropriate panels" were briefed in private about the July 4 and 29 tests. But he said there was no public disclosure that the Soviets may have tested in the range above that allowed by a new test treaty because it was "in the national interest" to keep the information secret.

Both explosions were large enough to have been the subject of routine announcements under normal procedures. But both were kept secret until they were revealed by the Energy Research and Development Administration in response to queries.

A White House official said that was because the National Security Council has decided to change its 30-year-old policy of publicly announcing Soviet weapons tests.

Previously, the NSC routinely announced Soviet tests. But now announcements will be made only of the fact that a Soviet test has occurred and the time and the place, a White House spokeswoman said.

An NSC official said the July explosions were not announced because the administration was reviewing its policy of revealing Soviet tests.

There will be no estimate of the force of the blast because that will be a "critical figure in monitoring compliance" with nuclear test treaties, she added.

White House aides refused to say if Ford had ordered or approved the change, but did say he was "fully informed" of such matters.

Ford has been criticized by Ronald Reagan, his opponent for the Republican presidential nomination, as conducting a policy that is placing the United States in a subservient military position.

The actual signing of the latest underground test treaty was delayed several weeks in May, and some sources said Ford delayed the signing to avoid giving Reagan ammunition in key primaries early that month.

Critics of the treaty argued at the time of the signing that it was a fraud because it "limits" Soviet tests to 150 kilotons, which is about 10 times greater than the bomb dropped on Hiroshima in 1945.

If it should be announced that the July explosions exceeded the limits, it would supply Reagan with campaign material and would be considered a serious embarrassment.

Juvenile Court Hears Nine Traffic Cases

Nine traffic cases were held this past week in Pickaway County Juvenile Court. In other action during the week the court gave its consent for two minor couples to marry.

A 13-year-old Circleville girl was placed in the permanent care of the Ohio Youth Commission after being convicted of a curfew violation, being intoxicated and two counts of violation of probation.

Lawrence P. Rinehart, 16, Ashville, appeared on a charge of speeding and received a $5 fine. His license was suspended for two months with driving privileges restored for work and traffic school only.

Three cases were dismissed after the defendants had served their probation and one case was transferred to Franklin County.

Susan North Attends Case WRU Symposium

Susan North of Circleville, was one of more than 300 high school seniors who attended a week-long symposium in science and engineering at Case Western Reserve University.

The selected members of the Class of '77 participated in one of four sessions of the Summer Symposium in Science and Engineering July 18-23 to learn about career opportunities and the kind of education they need.

A typical day in the program included lectures by a faculty member of the University's Case Institute of Technology on one area of science or engineering, a class in computer programming and time for work on individual research projects or a tour of various departments and facilities. Students also visited departments in

Bus Crash Fatal To 4 In Iowa

NEOLA, Iowa (AP) — Lori Ring, 13, was on the school bus on a sunny day, perfect for a swimming outing. Then the bus turned over. When she regained consciousness, three young companions were dead.

"All I remember was the bus driver yelled 'oh no,' and I looked out and everything was all blurry," Lori said later. "When I came to, I was looking at my dad. I was out till Dad shook me."

Lori, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ring, was one of at least 33 survivors of the accident Friday afternoon near Neola. The accident killed two 8-year-olds, one of them the daughter of bus driver Carolyn James, and a 12-year-old. Most survivors were taken to a hospital in nearby Council Bluffs for treatment or observation.

Authorities said they did not know how many were on the bus because nobody made a list. A few survivors might have walked away.

Investigators from the National Transportation Safety Board today were trying to find out why the Tri-Center School District bus overturned.

Friday's trip was a privately organized affair, not a school outing. Last year, the deteriorating Neola swimming pool was closed because the town didn't have money for repairs. So parents in the farming community of about 1,000 sent their children on twice-weekly trips to a swimming area at Avoca, about 22 miles away.

And this time, less than a mile north of Neola, the bus hit a bridge abutment on Iowa Highway 191. The impact ripped out the front axle. The bus jumped onto the bridge railing and flipped into a ravine. Its front end was sheared off. The motor fell into Mosquito Creek.

Police Probe 2-Car Crash

Circleville Police investigated a two-car accident 7:55 p.m. Friday at the intersection of E. Mound St. and Clinton St.

James M. Harding, 18, Chillicothe, was westbound on Mound St. and had started to make a left turn onto Clinton St. when he was struck by a car driven by Thomas W. Harris, 22, of 539 E. Mound St.

Occupants in the Harris car were Tina Harris, 18, and Joyce Foreman, 16, of E. Mound St. The only passenger in Harding's car was Corky Wright, 17, Chillicothe.

Harding complained of a pain to his leg and Wright complained of an injured arm. They were referred to their doctors for treatment.

No charges were filed by investigating officer Sgt. Jim Francis.

Deaths

MR. PAUL A. HILL
A graveside funeral service for Mr. Paul A. Hill who died at Bar Harbor Hospital, Los Angeles, Calif., was held 11 a.m. Saturday at Forest Cemetery in Circleville. The Rev. Eugene Flowers officiated.

Survivors include one son, Ronald Hill; mother, Mrs. Goldie E. Hill, Route 4; two brothers, Edwin J. Hill, Royal Oak, Mich.; Arthur R. Hill, Greeley, Colo.; two sisters, Mrs. Marie Dobbins, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Betty Mimms, Burton.

The funeral was under the direction of Defenbaugh Wise Funeral Home.
